Al Dhafrat Region
71% of the emirate's total area

Al Ain
≈160 km from Abu Dhabi International Airport
Whether it’s a fun-filled family holiday or a romantic getaway, you’ll find experiences to match your pace across Downtown Abu Dhabi, Yas Island and Saadiyat Island. Feel at home with welcoming Emirati hospitality while you explore museums, dine at award-winning restaurants, or simply soak in the sunshine by the pool.
Translating to 'The Spring', this garden city offers visitors a range of archaeological sites, historic buildings and cultural attractions. Just a short drive from Abu Dhabi City, the Cultural Sites of Al Ain are the UAE’s only UNESCO-designated heritage sites – including Al Ain Oasis, Bida bint Saud, Jebel Hafit, and Hili Archaeological Park.
Also known as the Western Region, Al Dhafra is Abu Dhabi’s largest and most sparsely populated area. Covering two-thirds of the emirate, the vast expanse features stunning beaches, dramatic scenery and ancient forts, as well as the historic oasis of Liwa, the gateway to the sprawling Empty Quarter desert.

Getting around

Abu Dhabi Taxis
Flashes of silver and yellow at every turn, Abu Dhabi’s fleet of taxis keep the city moving.

On-demand services
Ride-hailing apps like Uber and Careem are available in Abu Dhabi, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Public buses
An incredibly inexpensive way to traverse the city, as well as the wider emirate – just use the Hafilat Smart Card.

Pedal power
Explore, exercise and have a bit of fun with find-and-hire bikes. The Careem Bike app will allow you to unlock two-wheeled transport across Abu Dhabi.

On the water
What better way to admire the cityscape than from the water? Jalboot offers a range of boat tours, cruises and excursions, tailored to your needs.

Self-guided walking
Truly set your own pace with guided audio tours from VoiceMap – your very own personal tour guide in your pocket. You can even download the tour and explore offline.
Planning the journey
Curate your journey using DARB, the official source of information for public transport.

Currency
The local currency is the UAE dirham (AED or Dhs), which is divided into 100 fils and is pegged against the US dollar (US $ 1 = AED 3.6725). Credit cards, debit cards and mobile payment services are widely accepted.

Visas
An Abu Dhabi visit visa is free of charge upon arrival at Abu Dhabi International Airport for citizens of dozens of countries (for the full list, see the Visit Abu Dhabi website), and for GCC citizens, a visa is not required to enter the UAE.

Citizens of all other countries will need to apply for an Abu Dhabi tourist visa, transit visa or visit visa prior to their trip.
Apply for a visa with hotels
Some five, four and three-star hotels can apply for visas on behalf of guests who have booked a stay with them. Make sure you check with your preferred hotel if they offer this service. While the airline, travel agency and hotel can apply for your visa, please make sure you give yourself enough time for it to be approved, and note that they do not take responsibility if the visa is declined.

Dress Code
Abu Dhabi is a destination with almost year-round sunshine, little rainfall and near-perfect winter temperatures. Lightweight summer clothing is suitable for most of the year, but something slightly warmer may be needed for the winter months. Although the attitude towards clothing style is fairly liberal throughout the UAE, a healthy amount of respect for local customs doesn’t go amiss, especially when shopping or sightseeing.

Language
Abu Dhabi is a multicultural city, with residents speaking a vast variety of world languages. The UAE’s official language is Arabic but English is also widely spoken and understood.
